More Burglaries.—The store of Mr. C. Goldstein, on the south side of King street, between Pitt and Royal, was burglariously entered Saturday night and about two hundred dollars' worth of watches, jewelry, clothing, &z., stolen. The entrance was effected from the rear of the store, where boxes were piled in order that the thieves could reach a second-story window. Before they left the two burglars dropped their tramp outfit and donned themselves in suits of clothing upon which Mr. Goldstein had advanced money. The thieves then deposited the valuables they had secured in a leather gripsack they found in the store and decamped. The rubbery was not
